Founded in 1990, the Potton Heritage Association (PHA) pursues its objectives in three ways: 1) a historical society devoted to the documentation and dissemination of the elements of local heritage, 2) a lobby to promote the elements of heritage with public authorities, and 3) a meeting place favoring exchanges between people sharing common interests in relation to heritage. Conferences and excursions are organized to introduce the region's heritage sites. The Association has numerous print and digital publications and organizes annual thematic exhibitions. The Association's website [www.pottonheritage.org] serves as a newsletter for members and offers a digital library of the PHA's collection of documentary material and photographic archives. These include reprints from Histoire Potton History and virtual presentations of past exhibitions.
